

It's All in the Bag!

- Make sure all straps and hanging pieces are inside your suitcase or firmly secured to the bag with tape.
- Pockets and zippers should be closed on your baggage.
- Have identification on the outside and inside of your bag.
- Remove all old bag tags and bar code stickers from previous trips.
- Call your airline or check on their website for information on any weight or size limitations.
- Take any medications, jewelry and other valuables in your carry-on luggage.
- Avoid packing perishable or fragile items in your checked baggage.
- Check on the TSA website (www.tsa.gov) for information on restricted articles in checked and carry-on baggage.

Southwest Florida International Airport

Gateway to Fort Myers & Florida's Gulf Coast

Going Somewhere?

We want to make your travel experience at Southwest Florida International Airport a little easier. Your time at our airport can be the best part of the trip!

These travel tips are brought to you by your friends at Southwest Florida International Airport.

Come Early, Relax, Enjoy the View!

→ Passengers should arrive at the airport at least two (2) hours prior to their scheduled departure time for domestic flights and three (3) hours for international flights to allow for check-in and security screening.

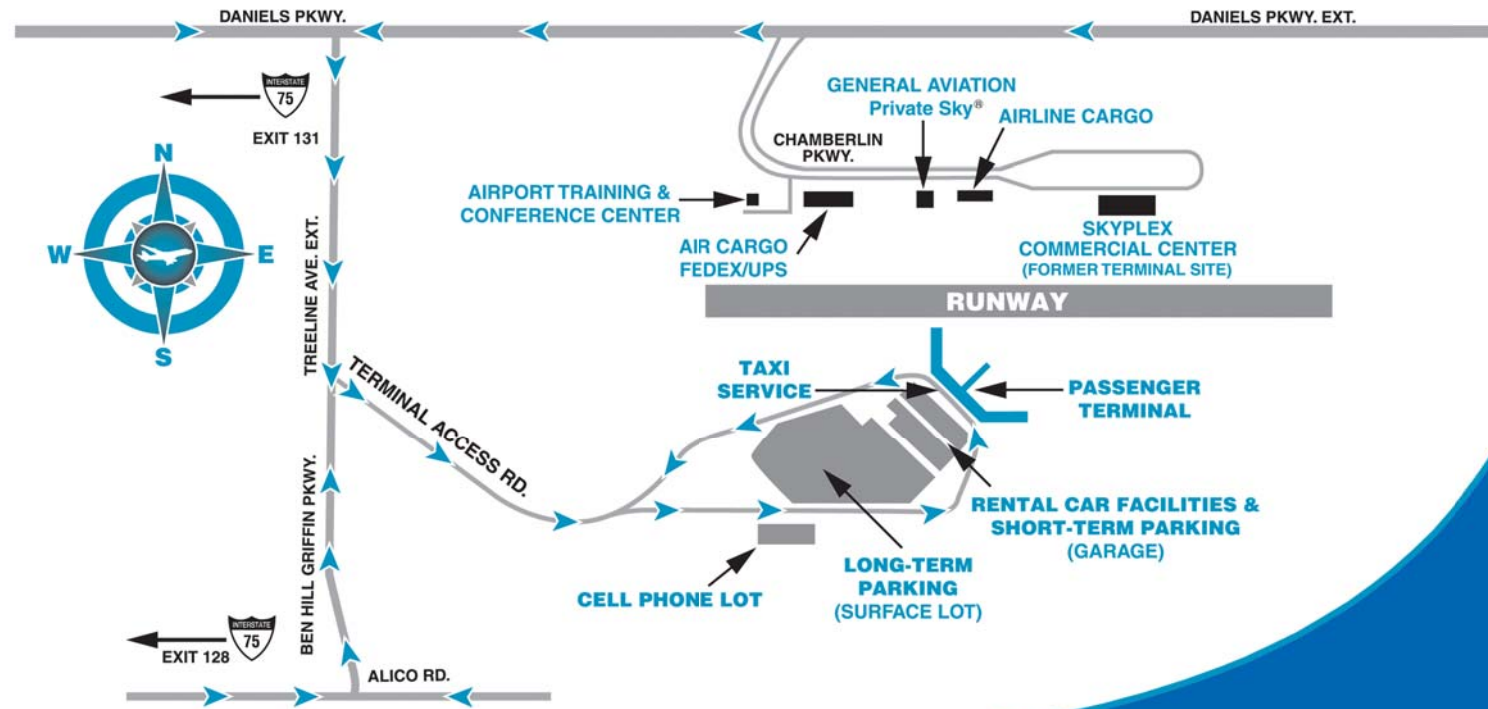

→ Allow extra time for parking and getting to the terminal building. We make it easy to park in the long-term lot with courtesy bus pick up right at your car!

→ Take time to enjoy our terminal before your flight. We have lots of bright, open spaces where you can sit and read a book or just watch the planes land and take off.

→ With 21 food and beverage locations and 16 retail stores from our award-winning concessionaires, you can enjoy shopping for that last-minute gift, relax over a cup of coffee or indulge in a full meal.

→ Check email or browse the Internet with our free Wi-Fi service located throughout the terminal.

Hello, Hello? We Just Arrived!

→ Remember, there is no parking or waiting curbside at the airport.

→ Picking up family? Park in the short-term lot - it is free for the first 20 minutes. Being there to get the first hug from your grandchild is a priceless moment!

→ Or use our convenient cell phone lot. When you get that first hello, tell your party to call you after they get their bags and are ready to go outside.
