TRAVELING THIS WEEKEND? ARRIVE EARLY AND PACK SOME PATIENCE

The Lee County Port Authority would like to remind your readers and viewers about the following information for traveling during the Fourth of July holiday out of Southwest Florida International Airport (RSW):

- Arrive early. Please get to the airport two hours before your flight departure time. This weekend will be busy, so please allow extra time to check-in and get through security.
- Roads will be busier during a holiday weekend, so allow extra time to get to the airport. To avoid congestion on local roadways, use the I-75 Direct Connect to get to and from RSW. There will be adequate parking at the airport in both long- and short-term lots.
- Know what to expect before traveling. Airlines have specific travel guidance and tips on their websites. Your airline will also have the most up-to-date flight information concerning any delays or cancellations.
- Visit the Transportation Security Administration's website at tsa.gov for tips about what you can and cannot bring through the security checkpoint.
