Breeze Airways™ To Inaugurate New Nonstop Service from Fort Myers to Las Vegas and Charleston

Fort Myers, FL (June 10, 2022) – Breeze Airways, the Seriously Nice™ low-fare airline founded by aviation entrepreneur David Neeleman, inaugurated service from the Southwest Florida International Airport tomorrow with its first nonstop flights to Las Vegas, NV and Charleston, SC.

The two nonstop flights mark Breeze’s first routes from Fort Myers, with fares starting as low as $49 one way.

“With these new routes, Breeze is looking forward to further growth in Fort Myers and in Southwest Florida,” said David Neeleman, Breeze Airways Chairman and CEO. “Our new flights will offer guests an affordable and easy way to travel with flexibility, seamless booking, and Seriously Nice™ service.”

"We are pleased to welcome Breeze Airways, one of the newest airlines in the United States, to Southwest Florida International Airport," said Ben Siegel, CPA, C.M., executive director of the Lee County Port Authority. "Breeze will begin convenient nonstop flights to Charleston and Las Vegas, which are not served from RSW and are both highly sought destinations by our community."

From Fort Myers, FL:

- Las Vegas, NV (Tue and Sat, starting June 11)
- Charleston, SC (Wed and Sat, starting June 11)

Breeze will operate the Fort Myers routes with its new Airbus A220 aircraft. The airline plans to more than double its fleet this year to 30 aircraft, including 14 Airbus A220s and 16 Embraer 190/195 aircraft. Breeze has a firm order for 80 new Airbus A220-300 aircraft that will be delivered one per month over the next six years, with options for 40 more.

Breeze's initial A220 aircraft deliveries will feature 126 seats, including 36 First Class in a two-by-two configuration, 10 Extra Legroom seats, and 80 Standard Economy seats in a two-by-three configuration. The A220 seat configuration is dynamic and later deliveries will offer 137 total seats, with 12 First Class seats, 45 Extra Legroom seats and 80 Standard Economy seats onboard.
