

Silver Airways To Launch Service From Southwest Florida International Airport

Hollywood, Fla. (February 9, 2024) – Silver Airways, America’s leading independent regional airline, will soon be providing new safe, reliable, and customer-focused service with nonstop flights four times weekly flights from Fort Myers, FL (RSW) to Key West, Florida (EYW).

In addition to serving Southwest Florida, this new route will also provide convenient and seamless connections to Silver’s extensive network throughout Florida and the Bahamas, and destinations in the United States and worldwide through Silver’s codeshare and interline ticketing partners. Operations to RSW will begin on April 18, 2024 (4x weekly service) with an ATR-42.

Service Frequency: Key West (EYW) to Fort Myers (RSW) will operate: Wednesday, Thursday, Saturday, Sunday.

“Southwest Florida International Airport (RSW) extends a warm welcome back to Silver Airways,” said Ben Siegel, CPA, C.M., executive director of the Lee County Port Authority. “We are looking forward to Silver inaugurating nonstop service between Fort Myers and Key West, Florida (EYW) in April, as it is a popular intrastate destination for Southwest Florida residents and visitors alike.”

“We are very excited to announce the re-initiation of Silver Airways service into Southwest Florida International Airport.” said Steve Rossum, Chief Executive Officer of Silver Airways. “We are returning to the beautiful southwest coast of Florida after many years, with service previously provided by Silver, and we are delighted to be back in Fort Myers with a newer, more modern fleet of ATR aircraft,” added Rossum. “This new service expands our presence in Florida and will offer more connectivity and opportunities with our partner airlines and provide our passengers with safe, reliable, and customer-friendly service to their travel destination,” said Rossum.

To celebrate the new nonstop service, Silver is offering fares from $79* available at silverairways.com for a limited time for travel from April 18, 2024, through May 18, 2024.
